

ABOUT PROJECT

The Department of Animal Husbandry & Veterinary Services is responsible for providing veterinary animal healthcare and welfare services to livestock in the state. Ultimately, the department aims to improve the socio-economic conditions of the state by enhancing milk, meat, and poultry production. They also focus on animal rescue, providing assistance in animal accidents, caring for distressed animals, and taking measures to prevent animal cruelty.

EGOA- PASHUSAMVARDHAN

DEPARTMENT OF ANIMAL
HUSBANDRY AND
VETERINARY SERVICES

SCHEMES COVERED UNDER THE PROJECT

- 1.Kamdhenu(Sudharit)
- 2.Kamdhenu(Infrastructure)
- 3.Pashupalan
- 4.Calf registration
- 5.Gram shakti
- 6.Dairy Kit
- 7.Dairy Equipment
- 8.Community Dairy Farming
- 9.Gopal Ratna Award Scheme
- 10.Varah Palan
- 11.Subsidy For Transport
- 12.Incentive for green fodder cultivation
- 13.Financial Assistance for Infrastructure of Poultry Farm

BENEFITS OF THE SCHEME

- 1.Development of Animal Husbandry Activities and promoting livestock entrepreneurship.
- 2.Enthusing and supporting livestock farmers in the state.
- 3.Training unemployed youth and farmers in dairy farming, piggery farming, and poultry farming.
- 4.Attractive subsidies in various animal husbandry activities.
- 5.Control of zoonotic diseases for public health.